

CONDITIONS of participation in Sevens International Biennial of Amber Art Works “Alatyr 2017”

The subject of contest – “World architectural chronic”

The art-works made in period 2016-2017 are acceptable for contest participation. Every artist has a right to present no more than 3 art-works or 3 sets/compositions in each nomination. All the works enter to organizing committee marked with a label contains name of author and title of work.

Amber should be the main material and contain no less than 50% in every presented art-work.

Organizing committee reserves the right to accept to the contest art-works even if they do not conform to the previous requirement (less than 50%), but on condition that amber in the work carries main meaning or it is the main artistic and expressive mean.

Using of natural, pressed amber and amber with inclusions are acceptable for making art works. It can be combined with other precious stones and gems, metal, animal bones, wood and other materials.

The exhibition is formed in virtue of curators’ work, who is invited by Organizing committee.

Curator has a right to present not less than 5 and no more than 15 authors.

Till June 1, 2017 curator should send to Organizing committee by e-mail expo@ambermuseum.ru the next materials:

- list of art-works contains the name of author, work title, year of creation, material, techniques, dimensions (height, width, depth) and insurance cost;
- marked photos of art-works;
- application form of artist made according to Organizing committee sample;
- informational and analytical article dedicated to presented collection.

Organizing committee makes a request for curators to conduct master-classes or read a lecture during the time of educational program for students of artistic educational institutions which are going to be conducted in frames of the project.

Preparation of documents and art-works delivering are the responsibilities of curator.

Jury members have a right not to consider the art-work as contest participant.

The contest is open to authors who are the curators, as well as independent artists. Independent artists are financially responsible for themselves.

For participation in contest exhibition the artist should till June 1, 2017 send to Organizing committee by e-mail expo@ambermuseum.ru the next materials:

- application form made according to Organizing committee sample;
- marked photos of art-works;
- scan-copies of diplomas, certificates or other educational documents; scan-copies of diplomas, certificates, gratitude, or other document about the participation in exhibitions and contests and prizes; also scan-copies of publications with bibliographic data.

Organizational committee reserves a right to reject of artist application.

Art-works should be presented to Amber museum no later than June 26, 2017.

Additional information is on Amber museum internet page ambermuseum.ru.

Organizing committee of biennial